

Mrs. Karen Wall joined Trinity Christian Academy in 2017. She has vast experience working with children and families from a variety of backgrounds and has homeschooled her own children for many years. Karen graduated Cum Laude from Illinois State University with a Bachelor of Science degree in Education. She then began her career as a Special Education Teacher with an emphasis on Learning Disabilities and Behavior Disorders, teaching in Illinois and Missouri. While working as a teacher, she went back to school and received a Master's of Education degree in Counseling. She worked in private practice for a short time and then returned to her first love, teaching. Karen is married to her husband, Andrew. They have two fabulous boys, Khai and Kaleb. In her free time, Karen is an avid reader and consummate interior decorator. She is also passionate about volunteerism and she spends much of her free time with the awesome young women she mentors from Sparrow's Nest Maternity Home.
